NOTRE DAME TRACK MEN CHOOSE DESCH CAPTAIN FOR 1923

Star Hurdler and Member of 1920 Olympic Team Succeeds Murphy.

August Desch, president of the Junior class and hurdler extraordinary, will captain next year's track squad at Notre Dame, according to the selection made at a meeting of the members of the squad yesterday noon.

Desch is one of the hardest working athletes that ever stepped into a suit, and he seems due for his biggest season next year. Time and time again, he has sacrificed his interests in the hurdle races by running three races a day for the Gold and Blue track team. This spirit of team work has made him one of the most popular athletes on the campus, and one of the most popular men attending the school.

Today he is world's champion in the 440-yard low hurdles, having set a new mark of 53 and 45 at seconds at the Pennsylvania relay games a year ago. Later in the same spring, he lowered the mark still further in an invitation meet at Dayton, Ohio.

On U. S. Olympic Team. He was one of the three Notre Dame men who were members of the American Olympic team at Antwerp two years ago. He finished third in the 440-yard hurdles, behind a scant two yards behind Leonic. This spring, in addition to running the hurdles, he was a regular member of the mile relay team, ran several times in the short dashes, and also as a member of the quarter-mile relay team at the Drake games.

His athletic ability does not stop at track, however. Rockne was in need of another fast halfback during the 1921 football season, and Desch donned the mole skins for the first time since coming to college.

N. Y. BOARD TELLS CHAMPS TO SCRAP

Threatens to Forfeit Titles of Kilbane and Wilson—Must Sign by June 20.

NEW YORK, June 6.—(By A. P.)—The New York state athletic commission Tuesday served notice on Johnny Kilbane, featherweight boxing champion, and Johnny Wilson, middleweight champion, that unless they sign articles by June 20 agreeing to meet challenges for their titles, the championship claims of both will be declared forfeited so far as the jurisdiction of the state commission is concerned.

The commission stipulated that Kilbane must accept a challenge by Johnny Dundee and that Wilson must fulfill a contract to declare he made some time ago to box Harry Greb, who recently won the light heavyweight title by defeating Gene Tunney.

Failure to meet the terms of the commission's formal "ultimatum" will deprive both boxers of their right to apply for licenses in New York, the commission announced, and their championships will be declared open for competition to all boxers in their respective classes.

ROCKNE INSTRUCTS FOOTBALL PLAYERS BEFORE DEPARTURE

Gives Candidates Rules for Summer—Plans Early Practice Work Next Fall.

With examination week half over, Coach Rockne is giving some parting advice to his athletes, and in particular to his football men these days. The coach wants the men to keep in the best sort of condition this summer, so as to be ready for a flying start in the fall.

Green Material. An early start must be had next fall if the Irish are to have another successful season. Only a very few experienced players will be available, and Rockne will have to develop a team out of the reserve and freshmen squads.

That plenty of material may be found in these squads there can be no doubt. But it will take time to whip a team together, to teach the green men a few tricks of the game, and then get the eleven players accustomed to playing with one another.

Fear Georgia Tech. The first big foe that the Rockers will meet is Georgia Tech. The Golden Tornadoes will clash with Notre Dame about the end of October. And just at present, the Georgians are causing Rockne more worry than any other team on the schedule.

Notre Dame has never met Georgia Tech on the gridiron here, but the two schools play a similar style of game, requiring fast, nimble players, and working the forward pass to a great extent. It should be a great game, and Notre Dame will be preparing for it all during the summer.

TENDLER HAS EASY TIME KNOCKING OUT BARRETT IN SIXTH

Philadelphia Boxer Pummels Rival for Five Rounds Before Opening Up.

PHILADELPHIA, June 6.—(By A. P.)—Lewis Tandler, of Philadelphia, Tuesday night knocked out Bobby Barrett, of Clifton Heights, Pa., in the sixth round of their scheduled six-round bout at the National League baseball park in the presence of more than 20,000 spectators, one of the biggest crowds that ever saw a boxing match in Philadelphia. The knockout came toward the close of the sixth round.

In the first round after a cautious start, Tandler drove into Barrett with a series of swings to the body, interspersed with several sharp jabs to the face. Before the close of the round, Barrett was bleeding from the nose as the song sound Tandler had his opponent well on the run.

Barrett tried his vicious swings in the second round but Tandler was too fast for him. Barrett's attempted blows missing their mark on each occasion. Tandler did little but jab Barrett in the face with his right in this round.

In the next two rounds Tandler forced Barrett to take a lot of punishment. The Philadelphia pugilist jabbing with right to Barrett's face with an occasional slashing uppercut that had his opponent bleeding freely from the nose and mouth when the third round ended.

Barrett Unable to Hit. The fourth was a repetition of the third with Barrett attempting more of his wild swings, some of which landed. Tandler in the meantime continued to hammer Barrett all over the body and several times had him staggering.

The fighters weighed in at ring-side, both tipping the beam at 157½ pounds. Herman Taylor, one of the promoters of the show, was chosen to referee.

BAN JOHNSON NOW EASIER ON STARS

Used to Ban Them for Season for Slight Breach—Merely Fined Babe Ruth.

NEW YORK, June 6.—Ban Johnson is diluting his justice with respect to the stars. Take the case of Babe Ruth.

Babe hurled into the stands and made a fan do 2100 revolutions a minute. If this had happened 10 years ago Ban would have sentenced Babe to sell programs or shuck new brown peanuts for the duration of the season.

But this year Ban writes a Valentine greeting in blank verse and orders Ruth to read it.

This was about the cruelest punishment meted out thus far this season by the head of the American league, who formerly was known as a martinet, a czar, and names not so polite.

The Ruth sentence indicates that Ban has come to realize at last that baseball stars have something in common with those of the opera. They are subject to temperamental fits. Probably 10 years hence a baseball wonder who gets front-page space for running amuck like an escaped steer on the streets of Binghamville will be accorded a raise in pay, the clean-up position in the batting order, and an afternoon off every ladies' day.

Still Trying to Beat Paddock

"JINX" KIRKSEY. Jinx' Kirksey, who spent three college years at Stanford trying to beat Charlie Paddock to the tape in the 100-yard dash, is still trying this season to equal the champion's 9.3-second record.

Kirksey has trailed Paddock in all of his races—but not by much. Once, a photograph shows, the foot was across the finish line ahead of Paddock's body, just as the latter touched the string.

Each time, however, there has been just a little margin in Paddock's favor at the end of the lane. Was Kirksey "jinxed"?

Kirksey has been practicing the hundred in phenomenal form this season—a fast 9.4—despite some trouble with weak tendons in one leg.

The Yankees hit Faber safely in only three innings, and Ty Cobb, who was batting for the first time, hit a home run in the eighth inning. Muesel cracked out his fourth home run while Babe Ruth fanned twice, rolled out on another occasion and made Strunk back up to the fence for a line drive his other time up. GETS GOOD START TO BATTLE LEONARD

LONDON, June 6.—(By I. N. S.)—Jack Hutchinson, of the Glenview club, Chicago, golf champion, got away to a brilliant start in the Glen Eagles Scotland tournament Tuesday. He shot a 75 for the first 18 holes, going out in 36 and coming back in 39.

EXTERMINATOR, IN SEVENTH YEAR, IS FEARED ON TRACK

Winner of Kentucky Derby in 1918 Rivals Man o' War and Morvich.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., June 6.—(By A. P.)—When the history of the American turf is written, turf followers say, that one name that must be written far up in the list is that of Exterminator, Willis Sharpe Kilmer's great stake winner. By taking the Kentucky Handicap at Churchill Downs last month the great son of McGee passed the $200,000 mark, and incidentally took his place next to Man o' War, the super horse which captured $249,465 in winnings during his brief racing career.

Faster Than Morvich. Moreover Exterminator carried 128 pounds, up weight, in the Kentucky Handicap and negotiated the distance in 2:04.2-5 on a rather slow track. Two weeks prior to this performance, Morvich, unbeaten in a dozen starts, made the same distance on a fast track in 2:04.4-5. The 1922 Derby winner carried only 126 pounds.

Exterminator's owner apparently fears no field. In the last race here the great son of McGee defeated some of the best handicap horses on the American turf, including Firebrand, Jefferson Livingston's favorite, which carried the next highest impost, 115 pounds. Based on the records of the American turf, Exterminator, in the opinion of those who have delved into them, is the greatest horse of all time. Man o' War is conceded to be the greatest three-year-old, but he has been retired, while Exterminator still is running.

Exterminator really stepped into greatness when he won the Kentucky Derby in 1918, in a field containing such thoroughbreds as Escoba, Viva America, Jack Hare, Jr., and War Cloud. Most of these horses today have given up the struggle and have dropped by the wayside, but Exterminator still carries on.

In his seventh year Exterminator is looking forward to more winnings, and his trainer, Eugene Wayland, already has indicated that the Derby winner of four years ago will be on hand to compete in the Independent Handicap at Latonia or Jugeton.

Trainer Wayland also has indicated that Exterminator will return to Kentucky in the fall to take part in cup races here and at Lexington. He has a number of stake engagements in the East during the next few weeks.

Exterminator bids fair to approach the winning mark set by Man o' War, and some followers of the turf are predicting that he will pass the quarter million point before he retires from active participation on the track.

While Man o' War and Exterminator are the only American horses to win more than $200,000, records show that six horses have reached this amount. They were Isinglass, Donovan, Rock Sand, Baxard, Lemberg and Flying Fox. Carbine, with winnings of $147,380, stands highest on the Australian turf and Sandanaple is the only French runner to win more than $200,000.

WIRELESS USED TO PLAY CHESS MATCH

Amateur Champion Opposes Rival Who Is Aboard Ship Bound for Europe.

NEW YORK, June 5.—By A. P.—When business interferes with pleasure Edward Lasker, American amateur chess champion, suggests wireless.

He made the suggestion last week to his friend, E. G. Gundlach, chess enthusiast. Tuesday it was carried out.

Gundlach and the champion were preparing to engage in a match that business meetings had long postponed when the former received word that he was wanted in London at once. As they put the pieces away disappointment prompted the champion to suggest wireless and on the spur of the moment the arrangements were made.

Gundlach sailed on the President Taft last Sunday and Tuesday the long postponed match was begun. Mr. Gundlach's moves were sent in by wireless to the office of the United States lines here, decoded and then wired to Mr. Lasker in Chicago. The champion's moves are received by wire here and then coded for wireless transmission to President Taft.

Twenty-six moves by both players in the first day of play, Gundlach playing white and Lasker black.

INDIANS HIT SALLIE IN PINCHES AND WIN

INDIANAPOLIS, June 6.—(By A. P.)—Sallie was hit in the pinches and Indianapolis won the opening game of the series from Toledo here today by a score of 6 to 4. Petty's triple followed by a sacrifice bunt the seventh inning proved to be the winning run after he had relieved Hill at the opening of the sixth. Score: Indianapolis..... 000 121 20X—6 12 2 Toledo..... 002 002 000—4 9 3 Sallie and Koehler; Wilson; Petty, Hill and Krueger.

Pro Says Golf Will Surpass Baseball as Favorite U. S. Sport

CLEVELAND, O., June 6.—(By A. P.)—Golf, although still in the infant stage in this country, is destined to become the national pastime, according to W. H. ("Bertie") Way, professional at the Mayfield Golf club here.

"Baseball can't be beat as an entertaining sport for the masses," he said, "but when it comes to actual personal enjoyment in one's own achievements, there is no greater field than golf."

When asked why Cleveland cannot boast a player of national championship calibre, Way replied by stating that fewer players practice golf in Cleveland than in any city of its size in the world.

YANKEE SCULLER LOOMS STRONG IN ENGLISH CLASSIC

Walter Hoover of Duluth, an Oarsman of Repute, Enters Diamond Scull Race.

BY HENRY L. FARRELL. NEW YORK, June 6.—(By U. P.)—Since he has lost nearly everything else in the way of a title, Johnny Bull can't be blamed for puffing a chest over the Diamond Scull trophy which has been gathering dust on a British shelf since 1887.

The Diamond Scull is symbolic of the best part of arms and legs and the best heart that sits in a boat. Since 1897 when E. H. Teneyck of Worcester, Mass., won the trophy, the evidence has been that the best man in the world behind a pair of oars was a Briton.

Stood by Club. However, there was a fluke at that and it may be unluckied this year.

Jack Kelly, retired American sculling champion who won an unofficial world's title at the Olympic games by beating all the world's best oarsmen, was never allowed to compete for the Diamond Scull because Jack belonged to the Vesper Boat club in Philadelphia and the British and the Vesper club were not on speaking terms. Kelly, if he had renounced his club affiliation would have been permitted to race for the trophy but he wouldn't do it.

He waited for his chance against the British oarsmen and he got it at the Olympic games when he won a distinguished victory. Kelly has retired now but there is a worthy flag bearer ready to step into his shoes—Walter Hoover, an oarsman and civil engineer of Duluth.

Hoover won the Philadelphia Gold challenge cup, emblematic of the American championship yesterday and he broke the world's record by paddling a mile and a quarter in 7:24.

Hoover sails today for London where his entry has been accepted in the Diamond Sculls races to be conducted in conjunction with the Henley races on June 30.

On his present form, Hoover ought to win the trophy.
